Friends Believe Anti-Murphy Feeling Would Make Him Defeat Untermyer.

AGE LIMIT IS QUESTIONED

County Clerk Schneider and Others to Confer on Entire Anti-Tammany Ticket.

Associates of Irwin Untermyer, thirtythree-year-old son of Samuel Untermyer, et no time yesterday in beginning an attack upon Justice Joseph E. Newburger, he announced Sunday he would fight the attempt of Charles F. Murphy and the inner circle of the Tammany Wigwam to shelve him.

Charles S. Guggenheimer gave out a atement yesterday in the offices of Guggenheimer, Untermyer & Marshall 120 Broadway, of which he is a partner association with Irwin Untermyer.

The opening paragraph of the state ment cast confusion upon the question of the age of Justice Newburger, who has stated that he was born in 1858. It ntimated that Untermyer's friends had sething up their sleeve, which would be produced at the right time.

The statement that Judge Newburger

"The statement that Judge Newburger, if elected, would be permitted to serve four years of the fourteen year term for which the election is to be held," the paragraph ran, "is surprising to those who kndw the facts, unless one's age becomes a stationary factor as he approaches the age of 70 years, wisely fixed by our Constitution. When the time comes, if that fact becomes material, the records would be produced." Mr. Guggenheimer, asked what evidence he had reference to, replied that it was some sort of petition. It developed that Mr. Guggenheimer had the impression that a Justice must retire from the bench the day he becomes 70 years old, whereas the Constitution provides that it shall be the next succeeding December 31. This misapprehension accounted for one of the years he had cut off Juntice Newburger's term of service, if reelected.

Question of Length of Service.

Half of the statement was based on he hypothesis that Justice Newburger rould have only two years to serve. "If." It continued, "the principle which benefit, is that political parties should be forced to renominate Judes who would have two years, or one year for that matter, of a new fourteen year term. ather than to select young, vigorous ien, who can serve out their terms, he ay not find the voters taking so kindly may not find the voters taking so kindly to this method of squandering the people's money in continuous elections as he and his friends imagine, especially since the State has now shown its appreciation of their service by the new system of making them official referees. "Judge Newburger's confidence in his strength with the Democratic party on that issue is 'demonstrated' by his wisely refraining from entering the primaries of his own party and in an open, democratic way of contending for the nomination in the manner provided by law, instead of giving aid and comfort to the opposition party by endeavoring to the opposition party by endeavoring to furnish them with an issue against the party that has continuously showered honors upon him during his long life." In connection with this argument of In connection with this argument of the partner of Mr. Untermyer's son it was learned last night that former Jus-tice Francis M. Scott, who is head of the Committee of the Bar, which has filed a petition placing Justice New-burger in the Democratic primaries, has gone to Bluff Point. Advice for Bar Associations.

The third paragraph of Mr. Guggen-helmer's statement was an indirect sug-gestion to the Bar Associations that it would be unfair to recommend Justice Newburger in preference to Mr. Untermyer. It read:
"The misleading impression sought to be created by Justice Newburger's friends that when the time comes for the Bar Associations to make their recommendations to the voters as to the comparative fitness of the several can-didates they will abrogate their useful function as non-partisan advisers and will recomment to the voters the support Judge Newburger as sgainst other equally capable and worthy candidates, who would serve the full term, is a grave injustice by the Bar Associations. feel sure they will do nothing of the

Fulton County Banker Files Suit

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

OMAHA Aug. . — A million dollar suit was filed in Federal court in Omaha to-day by Edward Wells, a banker of Fulton county, New York, who seeks to gain possession of the 3,500 acre farm left by the late Chauncey Abbott of Schuyler, Neb.

Edward Wells says he is the grandson of Abbott and that the property should have come to him upon his grandmother's death instead of to the Nemother's death instead of to the Ne-braska heirs, who have possession of the land and other property. The Abbott farm is worth $200 an acre and is one of the best known in the State. The Chauncey Abbott will was made sixty years ago and the grandchildren and other heirs are seeking to break the instrument, Edward Wells says Chauncey Abbott married his grandmother, a widow, who lived in Fulton county, New York. The petition gives a long series of relationships to the final claim that Edward Wells is the true claimant to the their ship, the Limari, grounded forty miles north of Eten, northern Peru, in caim weather. A heavy storm came up and in response to the ship's wireless calls the Peruvian liner Montaro came along and rescued all hands, who had abandoned ship in the lifeboats. Officers had to threaten members of the orew with pistols to make some of them give way for the passengers.

The Mantaro had a travelling menagerie aboard which was much agitated by still another storm that smashed cages and let out itons and tigers, not of the strenuous Asiatic or African variety, but mighty fierce looking, and scores of monkeys that ran aloft and strung themselves along the rigging and screeched with fear. Some of the big cats were killed by their keepers, but most of them were amenable to discipline and were captured. Mrs. Hayes and her husband went up on the bridge to avoid being crowded by the animals.

Morris Rachmil and A. Lincoln Samtelson, partners, who did business as the Sterling Accounting and Audit Company, $66 Fifth avenue, and Bernard Joffe, an employee, were placed on trial yesterday in the Federal District Court before Judge Rufus El Foster and a jury. They are charged with conspiring to defraud the Government through the filing of a fraudulent income tax return for the Coastwise Warehouses, Inc. The warehouse company is said to have negotiated with the accountants under in-structions from Government officials. Before trial, Morris Rosenblum, a for-mer inspector of the internal revenue bureau, pleaded guilty as one of the defendants named in the indictment. He was accused of having accepted bribes through an understanding that he would approve returns submitted by the accounting company. He will be a witness in front.

Also equipped with Hot Spot and Ram's-Horn. There are many more rare treats in store for you, but remember this Post-War model is the continuation of the original Maxwell chassis as laid down 5 years ago.

To date more than 300,000 have been built. The public has paid $200,000,000 for previous Maxwells. This Post-War Maxwell is a greater car.

Be among the early ones to get this prized car. $985 f. o. b. Detroit .
